Attractions & Sights

in the Black Forest Highlands

So much to discover: protected natural havens, family-friendly leisure parks, a rich museum scene – and plenty more besides – await you in the Black Forest Highlands.

With its 21 towns and villages, this holiday region offers something for every taste. From famous highlights such as Lake 'Titisee' and the Gorge 'Wutachschlucht' to lesser-known gems like Lake 'Blindensee' or the Museum 'Le Petit Salon' Winterhalter. This booklet features a selection of the most popular attractions and sights in the holiday region, organised by place. The special bonus: with the Red Card, many attractions can be visited free of charge once (more on this on page 6).

If you're interested in the best walking routes, cycling tours, winter activities, foodie experiences and family attractions, take a look at our pocket guides on these themes. They're available from local Tourist Information Centres and info points – or use the 'Hochschwarzwald' app to access everything you need for your stay in the Black Forest Highlands on your smartphone.

Enjoy exploring!

Up-to-date information on all attractions in the Black Forest Highlands is available online at:
hochschwarzwald.de/attractions

A day out at a theme park, a boat trip on a deep-blue lake or pure adrenaline on the BLACKFORESTLINE suspension bridge – these are just three of around 100 holiday experiences available free of charge with the Red Card.

Whether indoors or out in nature: with the Red Card, many attractions and sights can be visited free of charge once during your holiday. There are also discounted multi-day ski passes for the for the Feldberg Ski Resort, as well as tickets for the Spa and Water Paradise 'Badeparadies Schwarzwald' at a special Red Card rate.

The Red Card is available with stays of two nights or more at participating accommodation providers.

Bergwelt Todtnau

AIR QUALITY RESORT

From the Feldberg massif down into the valley 'Wiesental': the town of Todtnau and its eight districts stretch across elevations of 600 to 1,400 metres. Together, they form Bergwelt Todtnau. The glacier-sculpted landscape of narrow valley basins, gentle high valleys, one of Germany's highest waterfalls and the 450-metre BLACKFORESTLINE suspension bridge is a paradise for nature lovers. Winter sports fans will find plenty to enjoy around Muggenbrunn and Todtnauberg, as well as at the pass 'Notschrei'.

Peterstaler – pure water. Pure Black Forest.

At the foot of the Black Forest, the springs keep bubbling up. The sources of this valuable mineral water in Bad Peterstal and Bad Rippoldsau were discovered as early as the first half of the 19th century, rising pure and fresh from deep within the Black Forest. Water experts rate the mineral water among Germany's highest-quality waters thanks to its balanced mineral content and harmonious taste.

The still mineral water brand 'Black Forest' is currently especially popular. It is Germany's lowest-sodium mineral water, has repeatedly received Öko-Test's top rating of 'very good', and is now one of the most widely consumed still mineral waters in Germany. With its name, the 'Black Forest' brand acts as an ambassador for the Black Forest – one of the world's best-known and most popular holiday regions.

TIP

The baroque rooms and splendid grand hall at castle 'Schloss Bonndorf' are the cultural centre of the district' Waldshut', providing an impressive stage for a wide-ranging programme of art, music and literature. Alongside well-known artists, you'll also discover exciting new names. The castle is also home to the Local history room 'Narrenstuben' and the town library. The adjoining parkland – with the castle garden and the Japanese Garden – invites you to pause, relax and linger.

Breitnau

AIR QUALITY RESORT

Set on a high plateau above the Valley 'Höllental', at 1,000 metres above sea level, is the climatic health resort of Breitnau. Between scattered hamlets with magnificent Black Forest farmhouses, woodland patches alternate with wide meadows. Narrow paths lead through the wild Gorge 'Ravennaschlucht' with its waterfalls and cascades, historic mills and old cable drives – and an imposing railway viaduct, which forms the backdrop to the popular Ravenna Gorge Christmas Market in Advent.

TIP

Take a break in style on the 'Land-Sitz' at the 'Fahrenberger Höhe' viewpoint. The four-metre-long bench was created in collaboration with the Vitra Design Museum in Weil am Rhein. Its flowing shape blends beautifully into the rolling landscape – with wonderful views included.

Eisenbach (Hochschwarzwald)

AIR QUALITY RESORT

In the 19th century, Eisenbach had more clockmakers and suppliers for clock production than any other place in the Black Forest – relative to its population. A selection of remarkable cuckoo clocks and other timepieces is on display in the local history room. The climatic health resort, with the districts of Oberbränd, Bubenbach and Schollach, is surrounded by unspoilt forests and offers one of the region's finest Alpine panoramas from Mountain 'Höchst'.

TIP

The world's first ski lift

The Schollach district lies idyllically in a long, gentle valley that's perfect for exploring by bike in summer and on cross-country skis in winter. Near inn' Gasthof Schneckenhof', you'll find the slope where the world's first ski lift went into operation in 1908. Inventor Robert Winterhalder used his mill and a circulating cable to pull guests uphill. Today, only the old mill building remains as a reminder.

Feldberg

AIR QUALITY RESORT

At 1,493 metres, Feldberg is not only the highest peak in the Black Forest, but also the highest of all Germany's low mountain ranges. The municipality of the same name, officially recognised as a climatic health resort, also includes the area around hotel 'Feldberger Hof'. Where a French diplomat was the first to ski in 1891 – making Feldberg the cradle of skiing in Central Europe – visitors today set off to explore Baden-Württemberg's largest nature reserve.

Friedenweiler

AIR QUALITY RESORT

The story of this climatic health resort is shaped by the former nunnery and Lake 'Klostersee', now used as an outdoor pool with a heated swimmers' pool. The wide meadows around the Rötenbach district are partly protected, as is the Gorge 'Rötenbachschlucht', popular with walkers. Music lovers know the municipality for the Straub family of violin makers, whose exquisite string instruments were played by Beethoven, among others.

Furtwangen

AIR QUALITY RESORT

Cuckoo clocks and Furtwangen are inseparable: the extensive collection of the German Clock Museum traces back to the clockmaking school founded in 1850. The museum is currently being refurbished and will remain closed until 2027. The renowned Furtwangen University shares the same roots. The town and its four districts are surrounded by gentle Black Forest valleys. Popular destinations include the source of the Danube 'Donauquelle' and the panoramic mountain 'Brend'; in winter, countless cross-country trails attract skiers.

We distil liquid fruit

Since 1924, the name Elztalbrennerei Weis has stood for top quality. Fine fruit brandies are distilled following centuries-old tradition, using steam-heated copper stills. Years of experience, combined with aromatic, fully ripe fruit from the Black Forest region, create products designed for true enjoyment. The range spans fine fruit brandies, liqueur specialities and international spirits.

Schluchsee

CLIMATIC HEALTH RESORT

This climatic health resort lies on the shore of the largest lake in the Black Forest. Completed in 1932, the dam not only serves as a vast energy reservoir, but also makes the area a paradise for water-sports enthusiasts. Boats, canoes and paddleboards can be hired, for instance in the bay 'Wolfsgrundbucht', at the lido or by the dam. Away from the water, there's plenty to experience in Schluchsee and its five districts too – such as a trip on historic trains along the 'Dreiseenbahn' railway line.

Schonach

AIR QUALITY RESORT

In Schonach, family-run clockmaking workshops combine tradition with modern life. The same is true of the Black Forest Cup, where the world's best Nordic Combined athletes compete for World Cup points every year. Alongside cuckoo clocks and a wide range of winter sports options, this climatic health resort offers attractive walking routes, for example in the nature reserve at mountain 'Rohrhardsberg'. The modernised spa park, with its small lake and playground, has become a favourite meeting place for all generations.

Schellsch halt mol

Just ring the bell!

The best tips from real people of the Black Forest

Looking for hidden gems you won't find in any guidebook? For beautiful places only locals know? Or simply fancy a chat with someone from the Black Forest Highlands? Then just ring a doorbell on the off chance – or, as we say here: 'Schellsch halt mol'! Signs with this welcoming greeting mark the homes of people taking part in the initiative. They'll be happy to open their doors and share their tips. Their addresses are listed on a digital Black Forest Highlands map, accessible via the link and QR code below.

St. Georgen

HEALTH RESORT

This mountain town, now home to around 13,000 residents, was once a centre of clockmaking and precision engineering, and the base for well-known record-player manufacturers. The museum 'Deutsches Phonomuseum' brings that history to life. St. Georgen is also home to other worthwhile museums. Around the town and its five districts, you can discover tranquil valleys dotted with impressive Black Forest farmhouses – and in winter, ski lifts and pistes where the whole family can have fun.

Geldermann

True sparkling-wine culture since 1838

The best way to get a feel for tradition is to visit where it's carefully preserved: in Breisach am Rhein. Discover Geldermann's sparkling wine cellars and take a tour of the historic vaulted cellar from the 15th century. Along the way, you'll learn all about the finer points of sparkling-wine production and traditional bottle fermentation.

Sparkling wine crafted from centuries-old traditions makes Geldermann Sekt as unmistakable today as it has always been.

St. Peter

AIR QUALITY RESORT

St. Peter, a baroque jewel on the Black Forest Panorama Road, lies on a high plateau on the southern slopes of the mountain 'Kandel'. At its heart are the baroque church with monastery courtyard – used as a backdrop for the 1950 film classic 'Schwarzwaldmädel' – and an extraordinary rococo library. Year after year, the International Organ Concerts draw classical music fans from far and wide. For walkers, the village is a starting point for tours up mountain 'Kandel' or into the nature reserve around the Waterfall 'Zweribach-Wasserfall'.
